

HE WOULDN'T HAVE BECOME
PRESIDENT IF HE'D STAYED IN PRISON.

For his humanistic attitude and criticism of totalitarian regime, Czech dissident and playwright Vaclav Havel spent 5 years in prison. Then after the fall of the iron curtain, he was elected the president of Czechoslovakia.

The next president might just be sitting in a Russian prison.

Support local prisoners who've been unfairly sentenced for their opinions.

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

prisonexit.org