

LOCKED UP FOR STUDENT PROTEST

PHYOE PHYOE AUNG MYANMAR

WRITE FOR RIGHTS

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

Phyoe Phyoe Aung was arrested after organizing a largely peaceful protest in Myanmar, during which police attacked students with batons. She and scores of others now face lengthy jail terms. To prove that it has left its brutal past behind, the Myanmar government must release these prisoners of conscience now.

Join the call for the immediate and unconditional release of Phyoe Phyoe Aung and all the students jailed for protesting peacefully.

WRITE A LETTER
CHANGE A LIFE

